Introduction

1. Despite the challenges posed by the coronavirus disease (COVID-19) pandemic both on its functioning and on the crises of which it is seized, the Security Council remained fully mobilized in 2021. Progressively returning to a normal conduct of business, the Council took action to contribute to the resolution of the conflicts under its consideration. It sought to strike a right balance between transparency and confidentiality, while endeavouring to be more inclusive and effective.

2. During the reporting period, António Guterres was reappointed Secretary-General by the General Assembly upon recommendation by the Council, following a transparent and inclusive process jointly agreed by the Assembly and the Council.

3. In 2021, the Council considered a total of 45 items. The Council held most of its meetings by videoconference during the first half of the year, while almost all meetings were held in person during the second half. While the wider membership was able to contribute to open debates in writing when the restrictions imposed under the pandemic prevented participation in person, the Council resumed the holding of open debates with the in-person participation of the wider membership in October.

4. The Council held a total of 150 public meetings, 90 open videoconferences, 14 private meetings and 124 consultations, as well as closed videoconferences. Twenty-nine meetings were held at a high level, compared with 19 in 2020 and 18 in 2019, while 34 were unscheduled and held at the request of Council members, mostly in response to crises unfolding across the world, including in Ethiopia, Haiti, the Middle East and Myanmar. In addition, the Council held seven informal interactive dialogues, including four in a virtual format. Lastly, wrap-up sessions were held each month by all Presidents of the Council.

5. The Council extended 354 invitations under rule 39 of its provisional rules of procedure, including 44 invitations to officials representing regional and intergovernmental organizations and 10 to representatives of international organizations other than the United Nations. It also invited 86 representatives of non-governmental organizations and civil society, compared with 51 in 2020 and 67 in 2019. In total, 56 per cent of the invitations extended under rule 39 were to men and 44 per cent to women, compared with 34 per cent of invitations extended to women in 2020 and 39 per cent in 2019.

6. The Council conducted a mission to Mali and the Niger that was co-led by France, Kenya and the Niger. The mission was the first to be conducted since the start of the COVID-19 pandemic, which illustrated the progressive return to a normal conduct of business and the resolve of the Council members to remain actively engaged in the resolution of conflicts.

7. During the reporting period, the Council adopted 57 resolutions and 24 presidential statements and issued 58 statements to the press. Forty-eight resolutions, or 84 per cent, were adopted unanimously, including six presidential texts co-sponsored by all Council members. The Council also adopted five notes by the President of the Security Council regarding its working methods. No procedural matters were put to the vote.

8. Building on resolution 2532 \(2020\), the Council unanimously adopted resolution 2565 \(2021\), in which it called for the strengthening of international cooperation in order to facilitate equitable and affordable access to COVID-19 vaccines in armed conflict situations, post-conflict situations and complex humanitarian emergencies.

9. The situation in Africa continued to occupy an important place in the work of the Council, as reflected by the adoption of 26 resolutions and 11 presidential statements related to that continent. Africa also accounted for almost 50 per cent of all country-specific meetings and open videoconferences. The Council was also mobilized on Middle East issues. Seven resolutions concerned that region, which was the subject of more than 30 per cent of all country-specific meetings and open videoconferences.

10. The Council maintained its attention on the humanitarian consequences of the conflicts of which it is seized and their impact on civilians and children, as well as on the role of women in preventing and resolving conflict.

11. The Council also held discussions and exchanged views on a range of emerging issues, including security in the use of information and communications technology, climate and security and the COVID-19 pandemic.

12. The sanctions regimes remained an important tool for the Council, and 10 of them were renewed in 2021.

13. The Council adopted decisions regarding nine peacekeeping operations and special political missions in 2021. At the end of the year, 72,789 peacekeepers were deployed across 12 missions in support of the Council's mandates. Council members noted with appreciation the contribution of United Nations peacekeepers to international peace and security and paid tribute to the 123 peacekeepers who had sacrificed their lives in 2021. Recognizing the need to ensure accountability for crimes committed against peacekeepers, the Council unanimously adopted resolution 2589 \(2021\), in which it called for the perpetrators of such crimes to be brought to justice.

14. Further information on the work of the Council and more detailed accounts of its meetings can be found in the monthly assessments of its work. The goal of the present introduction is not to provide an exhaustive list of meetings, developments or responses of the Council. It is intended as a succinct and useful overview of key developments, taking into account the remarks made by the Member States during the virtual informal meeting of the plenary of the General Assembly on the annual report of the Council for 2019 (A/74/2), on 31 August 2020.

Part IV

Report of the Military Staff Committee

I. Introduction

1. The present report of the Military Staff Committee covers the period from 1 January 2021 to 31 December 2021.

II. Background

2. The Military Staff Committee was established in accordance with Article 47 of the Charter of the United Nations and Security Council resolution S/115 of 1 August 1946. The Committee has a mandate to advise and assist the Security Council on all questions relating to the military requirements of the Council for the maintenance of international peace and security, the employment and command of forces placed at its disposal, the regulation of armaments, and possible disarmament.

III. Summary of the activities of the Committee

3. The Committee functioned continuously under the revised draft statute and revised draft rules of Procedure contained in document S/115 of 1 August 1946, during the period under review. It held a total of 26 meetings and discussed 35 topics.
4. Military representatives of the elected members of the Security Council actively participated in 26 meetings. Representatives of Secretariat departments were invited to brief the Committee and contributed to discussions: the Department of Peace Operations on 19 topics, the Department of Political and Peacebuilding Affairs on seven topics, the Department of Operational Support on three topics and the Department of Management Strategy, Policy and Compliance on one topic. Mission Force Commanders were also invited to brief the Committee.
5. Current United Nations peacekeeping and special political missions were the focus of 22 briefings, and various thematic issues were discussed at 13 meetings (see appendix IV.A).
6. To ensure the continuity of its work in the current extraordinary circumstances created by the coronavirus disease (COVID-19) pandemic, the Committee held 16 meetings via videoconferencing.
7. During the reporting period, the Committee planned and was prepared to conduct one field mission to the United Nations Multidimensional Integrated Stabilization Mission in Mali (MINUSMA). The mission was eventually held in another format owing to visa issues for the Committee Members concerning the Russian Delegation.
8. The Committee continues to announce all meetings and provisional agendas in the Journal of the United Nations and on the website, which is available in the six official languages of the United Nations and offers swift and easy access to the programme of work and current information on the Committee.
9. In accordance with paragraph 178 of General Assembly resolution 60/1 entitled “2005 World Summit Outcome”, the Committee continues considering its composition, mandate and working methods.

10. Saint Vincent and Grenadines remained unrepresented on the Military Staff Committee during the period under review as they did not appoint a military representative.
11. The Committee remained prepared to carry out the functions assigned to it under the terms of Article 47 of the Charter.
